For Kids & Families

Books -n- Babies

Read, sing, talk, play, and write together! Books & Babies features rhymes, songs, and movement for ages 0 to 3 with a caregiver. Every B&B includes open playtime and socialization. Siblings are always welcome. Fridays at 11:00am.

Story Times

Storytime makes learning fun! Story times act as an integral part of early literacy education by introducing young children to books, rhyme, music and other literacy based activities. BSBPL children's library offers programs matched to the typical attention spans and developmental levels of different ages of children. Tuesday at 6:30pm or Fridays at 11:15am.

Family Movie Matinee

Popcorn and great family movies. Every Saturday at 2:00 we put on a kid friendly film in the Children's library. No need to register, just stop by and enjoy the fun!

For Tweens & Teens

Lego Build

On Tuesdays afterschool our Teen Zone will host a Lego build. The library has plenty of Legos, so just bring your imagination.

Wii Wednesdays

Every Wednesday afternoon we'll break out the Wii and other games and play in the Teen Zone on the second floor.

Manga/Anime Club

Interested in Manga or Anime? Want to meet with others who are just as interested? Come to our weekly meeting where we watch some Anime, try our hands at drawing, or just discuss our favorites. Every Thursday 4:00-6:00 in the Teen Zone on the second floor of the main branch.

RPG Clubs

Our Copper City RPG club is currently hosting a series of D&D games. This club meets February 8th & February 22 1-5 pm in the dungeon of the library. No experience necessary. All ages are welcome.

For Adults

Tech Tips

We hold monthly, drop-in technology help sessions on the first Thursday from 10:00-12:00 at Belmont Senior Center. The second Thursday we'll be at Big Sky Senior Living. Also be at The Springs on the third Thursday from 10:00-12:00.

Tech questions are welcome anytime at the library. Drop in and someone will help! If you prefer, you can call 723-3361 to make an appointment.

First Fridays

First Fridays is our series designed to enlighten us about our town, our state, and our world. We listen to local movers and shakers as well as watch documentaries about happenings outside of Butte. We meet on the first Friday at noon in the Big Butte room on the third floor.

We continue our First Fridays series on February 7th with Kristjana Eyjolfsson at noon with a lecture on Japanese Internment at Ft Missoula.

Butte Astronomy Club

This club meets the third Thursday of each month at 6:30 on the third floor. Joe Witherspoon from Cottontail Observatory leads this group of enthusiasts. All ages are welcome.

Chess Club

The Butte Chess Club meets in the library Wednesday evenings from 6:00-7:45. All ages and abilities are welcome!

Book Clubs

After Hours book club meets the first Wednesday (February 5th) at 6:00 pm at La Casa Toscano. This month we'll discuss Becoming by Michelle Obama.

BSBPL book club meets the third Friday at 1:00pm. We'll discuss My Name is Lucy Barton by Elizabeth Strout on February 21st.

The Cookbook Club is a book club of a different kind. Each month we'll choose a theme or a cookbook and each member should choose a dish to bring to the meeting. At 6:00 on the second Sunday, we'll share our meal and discuss food. Location is at a member's house, so call the library for details. This month we're celebrating Oscar's night. We're sharing hors d'oeuvres and cocktails while we watch the show.

Loosely Knit Club

Do you knit? Crochet? Or craft? Our Loosely Knit club meets every Tuesday afternoon from 1:00-3:00 to work on their latest projects in a fun and supportive environment.

Life Writing Group

Our memoir writing group meets Thursday afternoons in the Big Butte room at 1:30 until 3:30. Classes are led each week by a member of the group. Come join this fun and supportive writing circle.

Continuing in February, The Carle Gallery will exhibit Keiko's Kimonos. These historic and modern kimonos were collected by Keiko Nabb, a long time Whitehall resident.

During January, the following programs about Japan will be held in the Gallery.

February 4: Beginning Japanese @ 6:00

February 7: Japanese Internment in Montana @ noon

February 11: Japanese Temples @ 6:00

February 18: Koi Socks @ 6:00

February 25: Origami @ 6:00

February 29: Closing Reception with Japan Friendship Club of Montana @ 2:00
